Mergis Group Named Title Sponsor of the 2008 AICPA Hall of Fame Award

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. - May 29, 2008 – The Mergis Group®, a leading professional finance and accounting specialty placement firm, announced today that it has been named the title sponsor for the 2008 American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) Business and Industry Hall of Fame Awards.

This accolade is annually awarded to a CPA that exemplifies distinguishing attributes and competencies while employed in the business and industry of public accounting. Award nominees must model the objectivity and ethical commitments of the CPA profession and lead by example while inspiring others to excellence. Nominees should also provide a vision of the broad business issues and an understanding of their profession beyond the numbers.

“The Mergis Group is proud to be a part of this partnership and we’re excited to expand our relationship with the AICPA. We are very pleased to recognize these CPAs, who have dedicated themselves to service excellence and leadership,” said Jack Causa, senior vice president and group executive of The Mergis Group.
