

In today's ever-changing regulatory environment, companies are challenged to maintain the financial skills needed to meet the fluctuating demands on their business. The Mergis Group® understands the pressures your organization is facing, and we're equipped with the value-added resources you need to tackle these requirements with ease and efficiency. Founded on more than 30 years of expertise, The Mergis Group is a high-touch recruiting leader committed to helping companies acquire the specialized accounting and finance professionals they need to operate successfully.

A Strategic Workforce Partner

More than a recruiter, The Mergis Group is a strategic workforce partner to companies looking to proactively respond to the changes impacting the accounting and finance industry. Due to shifting government mandates and the need for greater efficiency to remain competitive, the skills you need today may not be the skills you need tomorrow. At The Mergis Group, we understand this very well. Our team of specialized workforce experts will help you strategically align your accounting and finance organization to meet critical talent requirements today—and well into the future.

Supported by a Strong Network of Financial Experts

Understanding the nuances of the accounting and finance industry is key to recruiting the right talent for your organization. This is an area where The Mergis Group can provide extensive value and focused expertise. Our recruiting team is comprised of seasoned financial professionals—ranging from senior accountants and financial analysts to controllers—who use their prior experience, industry knowledge and networking capabilities to attract the most sought-after, competent accounting and finance professionals to your open positions.
